"THE LIGHT ETERNAL"

Beautiful Christmas Cantata to Be Rendered by the Choir of The Third Street M. E. Church on Sunday Night—Everyone Invited.

The beautiful Christmas cantata, "The Light Eternal," will be given by the choir of the Third Street M. E. Church Sunday at 7:15 p. m. The text of the cantata is by Irene Bronner, and the music by H. W. Petrie. Together they bring out in a beautiful and impressive way the old, old story, yet ever new, of the birth of the Saviour. While this is classed as one of Lorenz's difficult works, by hard and faithful work this choir expects to give a good rendition of the work. The following will be the order of the program:

Processional, "Joy to the World the Lord is Come."

Invocation.

Scripture reading and introductory remarks by pastor.

"THE LIGHT ETERNAL"

Prelude by piano.

"Praise The Great Redeemer," Chorus by Choir.

"It Speaks to the World," Soprano solo by Miss Huron and chorus by the choir.

"God Hath Given a Son," Bass solo by Mr. Clark and chorus by the choir.

"While Shepherds Watched," Chorus by choir, Solo by Mr. Muse and Miss Lillian Muse and woman's chorus.

"Star of Bethlehem," Trio by Miss Carrie Muse and Messrs. Muse and Clark.

"The Dawning," Solo by Miss Lillian Muse.

"He Came to Give Salvation," Tenor solo by Mr. Muse and chorus by choir.

"Born in a Manger," Solo by Miss Huron and chorus by choir.

"The Light of Glory," Solos by Mrs. Tolle and Mr. Muse and chorus by choir.

"The Message," Duet by Messrs. Clark and Muse.

"The Light of All the World," Chorus by choir.

"Angel Voices," Soprano Solo by Miss Lillian Muse.

"Lead Me," Final chorus by choir, introducing duets by Miss Carrie Muse and Mr. Muse, and Miss Gertrude Jones and Mr. Clark.

Accompanist—Miss Nellie Steele.

Cornets—Messrs. Walter Naumap and Howell Richardson.

The following compose the chorus: Sopranos, Mrs. William L. Tolle, Misses Phoebe Huron, Fannie Thomas, Carrie and Lillian Muse, Helen Naumann and Flossie Jones; Altos, Misses Virginia M. Hurd, Gertrude Jones, Frieda Nauman and Violet Muse; Tenors, Rev. S. K. Hunt and Ray Muse; Basses, Harry M. Clark, W. F. Love, Franklin Slay and J. H. Richardson.

The choir and church extend a most cordial invitation to everyone to attend. The offering will be for one of the worthy benevolences of the church. The church should be inspired at this joyous season to exhibit the true Christmas spirit by doing all things possible to make others happy.

On Sunday evening at 7 o'clock the Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church will present the program, "Kingdom Gifts." There will be songs and recitations by the little ones. Christmas carols and the presentation of gifts by the members of the school. The congregation will be given an opportunity to make an offering which will be used to send the Christmas story to children of other lands. Everyone cordially invited.

Hear the Victrola if you wish a perfect reproduction, the best made in the world, they have all the leading artists singing for them.

FIRE WARNING

Issued by Chief Newell in Regard to Danger From the Consuming Element at the Christmas Time.

Fire Chief Newell has issued a very timely warning in regard to the use of Christmas decorations and the dangers arising from the carelessness of persons at the holiday season. The warning is as follows:

Do not decorate your Christmas tree with paper, cotton or any other inflammable material. Use metallic tinsel and other non-inflammable decorations only, and set the tree securely so that the children in reaching for things cannot tip it over.

Do not use cotton to represent snow. If you must have snow use asbestos fibre.

Do not permit children to light or relight the candles while parents are not present. They frequently set fire to their clothing instead.

Do not leave matches within reach of children at holiday time. Candles are meant to be lighted, and if the children can get matches they will experiment with them. They imitate their elders.

Do not allow trees to remain inside buildings after the holidays. The tree itself ignites readily when needles have become dry. A large number of fires usually occur in January from this cause.

A house of merriment is better than a house of mourning.

Fires in winter impose unusually severe hardships upon the firemen.

Frozen hands and feet are common incidents in fighting winter fires.

Pneumonia frequently follows exposure of those driven by fires into the cold.

Defective heating and lighting equipments and combustible rubbish in furnace rooms are the usual causes of winter fires. Such fires are unnecessary and will not occur in premises properly cared for.

Warning for Stores, Churches and Bazaars. Holiday fires in these while filled with people are usually holocausts. Light inflammable decorations make fires easy to start and easy to spread. A match, a gas flame or an electrical defect may do it.

Watch gas jets! Decorations may be carried against them by air currents.

Do not make the slightest change in electric wiring without consulting electrical inspector.

RULIFF NEWELL, Fire Chief.

Never has there been shown a line of "French Ivory" to compare with that shown by Murphy, the Jeweler. They enamel and engrave it to suit customers. Call and have a look.

BANQUET SUCCESSFUL

The larger number of adults present to witness the children enjoy themselves the banquet in the Christian Church last night, seemed to be a success in every way. There were over sixty persons of the ages from Cradle Roll to Junior department who were seated at the tables. The names on the place cards showed that over twenty were unable to attend. Much credit for the success of the banquet was due to the efforts of the Junior Superintendent, Mrs. Ned Piper. She was assisted by the Cradle Roll Superintendent, Mrs. Frank Keith, Mrs. J. E. Dawson and other Junior workers. An effort was made to get a flash light picture of those present after the banquet had been served. This form of a treat for the little ones will be observed again.

Ever ready Flash Lights, in all designs, at Mike Brown's. Don't forget to ask for your tickets.

CLEAN OFF THE SNOW

The attention of the citizens of this city is called to the ordinance providing for the cleaning off of snow from the sidewalks. The ordinance provides that the snow must be cleaned off 24 hours from the time of the cessation of the falling of the beautiful. The Chief of Police and his officers about see that this ordinance is enforced to the letter as the walking becomes dangerous at places where the snow has not been removed.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE

The Sunday School of the First M. E. Church, South, will hold its regular Christmas service on Sunday evening. All of the members of the church and Sunday School are invited to be present and bring a gift wrapped in white paper as this is to be a white Christmas service and the presents brought will be given to the needy of the church. A most delightful program has been arranged and a treat is in store for all who attend.

Don't overlook the fact that while you are filling your Xmas list, every One Dollar's worth you buy at Mike Brown's, gets you a chance to win that $520.00 automobile.

"HECK" RELEASED

United States Commissioner M. V. Bell of Covington was in this city yesterday and released William "Heck" Darnell, who was sentenced by Federal Judge Cochran at the October term of the Federal Court for violation of the Internal Revenue Laws. Darnell was confined in the local jail, following an appeal to Judge Cochran to place him there. His term was for 30 days.

LAYTHAM-HENDERSON

Mr. Bruce Henderson, 21, of Poplar Flats, Ky., and Miss Fannie Laytham, 23, of Maysville, Ky., were married in this city yesterday by County Judge W. H. Rice.

Matinee at the rink Saturday 2 to 11:30 o'clock.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the Maysville Public Schools held a meeting in the High School building last night. The Board voted to place a Western Union electrically operated clock in the main lobby of the High School building. Further than this no business of importance was transacted.

Mrs. J. Roger Devine and children, Miss Helen and Magler Thomas, with her father, Mr. P. W. Brown, arrived in this city Wednesday evening from Cleveland, O., to spend Christmas with Mr. Thomas W. Brown and their many friends in this city.

You might not be born lucky, and yet hold that winning ticket for the $520 Chevrolet that Mike Brown is going to give away.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The Poor Kids of the City Will Receive Their Treat at the Old Standard Bank Building Through the Generosity of "A Number of Prominent Business Men."

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the distribution of the gifts from a number of the lending business men of the city to the poor kids will take place at the Standard Bank building at the corner of Court and West Second streets. The distribution will go on until every child in the city whose parents are too poor to buy him or her Christmas presents have been given some toys, fruit and candy.

The business men planning the distribution of the various gifts to the poor children have purchased toys of almost every description and they are now being arranged in the bank building. Two young ladies will have charge of the distribution of the gifts and will see that every poor child that visits the place get some of the many toys, fruits and candies.

Every citizen of the city interested in the community's welfare should see that every poor child in their neighborhood has been notified of the distribution of the gifts and to see that they go to the Standard Bank if possible on Saturday afternoon. One of the greatest delights of childhood is Santa Claus and certainly there is no one that would deny this pleasure to any one more unfortunate than they. To all of the older people Santa Claus should be a personification of the great spirit of giving which is abroad in the land at this time of the year more than any other.

The business men of the city who have donated towards this excellent move certainly deserve all of the praise that can be bestowed on them. They want every child in the city to have a visit from Old Santa on Christmas morning and to that end they urge every one to invite all the poor children that they know of.

COMING HOME TO ROOST

The natural consequences of President Wilson's habit of postponing difficult questions instead of settling them at the right time appear likely to make themselves very prominent within a short time. The railroad companies are proposing to employ their right to test the validity of the Adamson law. Suits have been instituted in various parts of the country in the federal courts to see what the law means and whether it is constitutional or not, and it is expected that the questions involved will be pushed through for final decision by the supreme court within a few weeks.

In the meantime we are hearing such statements as this from President Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen: "Any railroad that attempts to cancel the present schedule of hours and pay or refuses to put the 8-hour day into effect will find itself with a strike on its hands. What supreme court does with the law is no concern of ours. We have demanded fair working hours and we are going to get them."

Manifestly, having held up the President and Congress, Mr. Lee feels quite equal now to doing the same thing to the Supreme Court and showing that body just where it will disembark.

That is one of the results of the President's method of dealing with men who defy the government. If they can succeed in doing it once why shouldn't they feel like trying it again?

And in saying that we would like to be understood as holding more than a mental reservation as to the rank and file of the brotherhoods. Mr. Lee and other chiefs may flout the government and the courts, but unless we have always been very much mistaken as to the character of the men under them they will not place themselves in any considerable number before the public in that attitude of defiance of the government. —Minneapolis Tribune.

Faith Hope and Charity Personified

by Maud Bernard

"I WAS kind of him at least to send a special messenger. Up to this time the only sympathy I have experienced has shone in the eyes of the postman, and this silent solicitude on his part is getting on my nerves. I am glad he failed to witness this final disappointment. I mean that too, for I am determined to devote my efforts to some other line from now on. Still I don't see why he should have ruined my Christmas. It seems to me since he held my manuscript for six weeks, he could have given it back room for another day, thus permitting me to live up to my name today of all days."

After this outburst, Mae Hope, a would-be song writer, sank into a chair, thrust a bulky envelope from the Frank Charity Music Publishers into her desk, and sat hopelessly gazing at the small epistle from the same office and with a slight touch of humor and a faint suggestion of a smile, recited the contents of that letter—not through the envelope, which she had not opened, but from memory:

"Sorry, Miss Hope, that this is not yet quite up to the standard, but sincerely trust you will not be discouraged, etc., etc."

For three years Miss Hope had been receiving these distressing notes from the genial young publisher, who could not summon the courage to advise her to give up. Perhaps he realized it was merely a case of humoring an imagination rather than attempting to earn a living as the young lady's income was sufficient to keep her alive without setting fire to the universe by flashing on the public her picture serving as a cover over some sentimental verses accompanied by music.

It was the morning of the last day of the third unsuccessful year. Mae Hope was interrupted at breakfast by the sound of the door bell.

"A lady to see you, Miss Hope," spoke the maid.

The name on the card seemed to add insult to injury.

"Mrs. Frank Charity. I never knew he was married. Maybe it is someone else. Probably somebody knows I need charity. Tell her I will be down immediately."

One glance at her visitor assured Miss Hope it was no stranger, but an old school friend.

"Violet! What! You? The card reads Mrs. Charity."

"Why, Mae, you seem surprised."

"How should I know you were married?"

"Violet, stealing a glance at the disorderly desk, remarked tartly:

"Perhaps it would be a good idea to read your letters if you want to keep up with the parade."

"You don't mean," picking up the bulky envelope from the Frank Charity Music Publishing company, "that this is a letter from you. It looks for all the world like manuscript."

"Manuscript, indeed! It is the story of my life written on my wedding day, and I am delighted to find it unopened a whole week later. I thought it was wonderfully thrilling, and to say the least, interesting to an old friend. I spent so much time composing it, I am sure you will be fully enlightened if you read it instead of looking at me in blank amazement and making it impossible to express myself."

Miss Hope, after seeing her guest comfortably seated, delved into the depths of the secret, but not before she had said by way of apology:

"A week, my dear, is a very short time to be ignored with a suspicious looking envelope of this kind," and this remark was thoroughly appreciated by Violet Faith Charity.

"My dear," said Violet, "it all happened because I attended services on Christmas eve, but to begin at the time when I last saw you, the one day I most distinctly recall was the day I met Frank. He was on the stage, and believing him to be a regular actor, I did not mention him to Aunt Agnes. For years I suffered the annoyance of entertaining her choice acquaintances and met with her disapproval for my utter indifference. You can imagine my relief when the second appearance of Frank in our little city showed him in the light of a chautauqua singer—consequently eligible to admittance to the best circles. He sang some of your compositions, won my aunt, took his bride, and here I am. Suppose you take a glance at the other envelope that came by the same messenger."

Mae, speechlessly, laid down the "story of my life" and fingered the small envelope, which held another surprise; silently reached for her letter opener, and inside of another minute a check for $1,000 fell into her lap.

"When she could pull herself together sufficiently she read the little note accompanying:

"Dear Miss Hope—I sang your songs at Edgewood, and they made the hit we have both been waiting for. I won a bride and you win the cash. Merry Christmas."

"It seems, Violet, the same man has made us both happy. He has given you the hero you prayed for, and has helped me to a coveted career, and the only reason he did not make us both happy on Christmas day is that you took the proper step—lived up to your name, Faith, and went to church to have your prayer answered, while I chose the pessimistic mood, and when happiness fell into my lap I threw it aside and lost hope in the face of Charity."

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed; Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble.

It is often the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys.

Read what Doan's have done for Maysville people.

Mrs. E. Sphar, E. Second and Walnut Sts., Maysville, says: "Whenever I have heard anyone complain of their kidneys, I have never seen Doan's Kidney Pills fail to help them. I have been greatly benefitted by them myself. At times, my back has ached and I have suffered from lameness through the small of my back. When I have been in that way, I have used a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I get at Chandler's Drug Store. They have always quickly removed the trouble."

Mrs. Sphar is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Sphar had, the remedy backed by home testimony, sold at all stores. Byron, Charles Marshall, George W. Cooper and James H. Soules.

J. F. Lynch of Paris wound up his turkey business here for the year last week, having shipped 6500 turkeys for the Christmas market, and 5000 for Thanksgiving. Besides these, the firm of R. M. Raylins & Co., poultry dealers, shipped out quite a large number alive.

William Brezic, the hustling manager of the Princess theater, was confined to his home several days last week with illness.

Mrs. J. Wato Stewart has returned from Lexington, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Thomas F. Breen.

Elizabeth, daughter of N. C. King, near Beechburg, was quite ill last week with appendicitis but is now better.

Miss Alice Carpenter is moving today to take up her home with her sister, Mrs. Charles McMath, at Moscow, Ohio.

W. F. Bell of Tallula, Ill., came in several days ago to spend the winter with his father, James P. Bell, near here.

Mrs. Earl Barton and little son came down from Millersburg yesterday to visit her parents, James W. Overley and wife.

Mrs. C. R. Garr went to Lexington Friday to visit her son, Dr. C. C. Garr, and to attend a meeting of the Rotary club.

P. G. Hall has bought the cottage of John Peck on Ingram Avenue and has moved to it from his farm near Hords store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Griffith joined in with their many friends at the birthday dinner December 12 at their cousin, Ed Carpenter.

Harold Hopper arrived Friday from Havre, Montana, on a visit to his parents, G. E. Hopper and wife near here. His brother, Marshall, is also now in Montana, having returned from New Orleans where he had gone to embark for South America but could not get a vessel at the time.

J. W. McCann left yesterday afternoon for Lexington and from there goes to Florida. Later he will go to Iowa to take a course as chiropractor.

C. A. Peters arrived back from his trip to Kansas City last week, bringing with him three cars of stock cattle, mostly short horn stock, comprising yearlings and calves. He reports the market there high, especially on the white face cattle, which are quoted at about $8.50 per cwt.

Harry B. Dobyns of the Mt. Gilead vicinity has moved to rooms of Mrs. T. M. Fleming in this city and taken a position with the Sugar Loaf Creamery.

W. H. Clayton has moved to the property of Mrs. Dickey on Hammer hill and George F. alkner, Jr., has moved to his property which Mr. Clayton occupied.

As yet no definite deal between the Sherburne Bridge Co. and Bath county has been made whereby the bridge may be freed of toll. Owlag to the bad weather the meeting which was arranged to take place at Sherburne several days ago was not held, but the probability is that when the Bath fiscal court committee and the stockholders meet together they will not have trouble in getting together on a trade so that the toll will be abolished.

EVANS SHOWS

Indoor Circus, Which Was to Have been held in the Washington Opera House on Next Week, Has been cancelled and Splendid Picture Will Take Its Place.

The managers of the Washington Opera House yesterday cancelled the contract with the Evans Shows, an indoor circus, for their dates here on next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. This attraction was rated as one of the best of its kind in the country but the local gentlemen thought best to dispense with it.

Instead the managers of the popular house will show twelve reels of pictures on Christmas night and have an equally interesting program for the remainder of the week. Mary Pickford, the darling of the screen, will be shown in one of her latest productions, "Less Than the Dust," and Clara Kimball Young, star of the World Film Corporation, will be shown in "The Feast of Life." The entire twelve reels will be shown for 25 cents.

The following is the synopsis of "The Feast of Life," which stars Miss Young:

Aurora Fernandez, a poor Cuban girl, is persuaded against her will to become betrothed to Don Armada, a wealthy Cuban. She loves Pedro, a young fisherman who lives with his uncle Father Ventura and his sister Celida, who has been secretly stealing to Don Armada's villa, but is cast off by him on his engagement to Aurora.

Longing for a sight of Pedro, Aurora, disguised as a dancing girl, goes to an inn where Pedro comes with other fishermen for a night's revelry. He does not recognize her as his "Lady of the Lily" as he calls her but falls a victim of the dancing girl.

Celida, dying of a broken heart, confesses to Pedro and Father Ventura, and Pedro, to avenge Celida, summons all the fishermen in the village and leads them against Armada, in whose villa the wedding feast is being held. The guests fly in terror and Armada is wounded. Aurora remains undaunted, and Pedro, finding her, recognizes not only his love of the tavern, but Aurora, and that she is the wife of Armada. Notwithstanding her pleadings not to kill her husband, he is about to strike when he sees that Don Armada is blind. This awakens his pity and he leaves the house.

Don Armada has an operation performed on his eyes which proves successful, but the physicians warn him that any shock may result in blindness for life. Aurora, in the meantime, has been carrying on clandestine meetings with Pedro, and Armada hoping to find out who Aurora's lover is, tells her that the operation has been a failure. He intercepts a note from Pedro and locking Aurora in her room, stabs Pedro. He then returns to Aurora and she discovers that he has tricked her. He tells her what he has done, but the shock kills him. Aurora escapes and finds Pedro still alive. She takes him home where she watches over him, and, the crisis over, the lovers are reunited.

WILL GIVE CONCERT IN FLEMING HALL

A dispatch from Flemingsburg says: Miss Mary Dan Harbeson and Mr. Robert Harbeson, of New York, but formerly of this city, will give a concert at the Lyceum Hall Wednesday evening, December 27, at 8 o'clock with Miss Florence Barbour accompanist. The concert is given under the auspices of Mrs. G. W. Crain's Sunday School class.

HIG CHRISTMAS DANCE

The Maysville Assembly Club will entertain with their annual Christmas dance Tuesday evening, December 26, at Neptune Hall. The Huffman Saxophone Quartette, of Cincinnati, Ohio will furnish the music. This promise to be the largest dance ever given by the Maysville Assembly Club.

RETURNED FROM STATE UNIVERSITY

Messrs. Earl Cobb, Gordon Marsh, Horace Clarke, George Bauer and Edward Parker, who have been attending school at State University, Lexington, Ky., have returned to their various homes in this city to spend the Christmas holidays.

Begin the New Year right—give your insides a thorough cleaning, washing, purifying. Protect them against the coming year's sickness and disease. MARKET CLOSES

For the Christmas Holidays With 208,710 Pounds of Tobacco Sold at Prices Ranging From $8 to $35 Per Hundred.

The Maysville Tobacco Market closed yesterday for the Christmas holidays and will reopen on next Thursday, December 28, for the remainder of the 1916-17 season. The houses will receive tobacco during this time however.

The sales for the closing day totaled 208,710 pounds at an average of $16.88. The prices ranged from $8 a hundred to $35. The quality of the weed received was good and the market closed very strong. Both the planters and warehousemen were well pleased with the results of the sales and a large amount of money was distributed.

The weather of the past few days has been such to bring the tobacco into splendid condition for stripping and it is reported that a great deal of this work is being done. Had the market continued open today doubtless the largest sales of the year would have been recorded as the farmers are very anxious to bring their tobacco in as soon as possible.

Mr. Leslie Slye, carrier of the Ledger in the East End, is confined to his home on Walnut street on account of illness.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

The Pie Social at the parsonage of Scott M. E. Church was a splendid affair. The inclement weather prevented many from attending, but the social was a great success in every way. Chief Auctioneer Mr. James Taylor, assisted by Prof. Humphrey of the High School added largely to the enjoyment of the distinguished guests of the Church Improvement Club.

Interesting exercises will be held in the church during the Christmas holidays including the Christmas Eve sermon by the pastor at 11 a. m. the 24th. The installation services of the Masonic Lodge and the Order of Eastern Star at 2 o'clock p. m. and the splendid musical program with solos and sermon Sunday night. Christmas morning prayer and greeting. Christmas night Sunday School concert and Entertainment. Watch meeting 7:30 p. m. December 31st.

All members of Aacala Lodge No. 24 F. & A. M. are requested to meet at Scott's M. E. Church, Sunday at 2:30. C. N. BIASTON, W. M. Henry Fields, Secretary.

CIRCUIT COURT

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday in the case of the Maysville Ice Co. vs. the Moocline Brewing Co., the jury in the case found for the defendant.

William Pierson, who is charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses and who several days ago presented a petition for a new trial stating at the time that if this were granted he would plead guilty, was brought into court and upon being arraigned for trial pled not guilty. In view of his statement that he would plead guilty if a new trial were granted the court held the petition for a new trial for naught.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
